

Date with Destiny Mentorship

You are within what you want to see in the world.

Welcome to the exciting shamanic healing work with focus on Destiny!
It is for you who want to get into a new powerful and harmonious relationship with your soul-purpose, your "Why".

According to Inka mythology, we are born with 2 books. One silver that is already written (karma) and one golden book of Destiny that has blank pages that is up to us to write. Like any other books, those have chapters and stories in the energetic that informs our life.

That is why healing ceremonies to heal the past, heal karma, are so important to engage in to set you free from the old. This opens the energetic flow and allows for future potentials to come into the present moment, which then begins to manifest in your world. It's like magic is finally happening!

Destiny is about living in Yes to Life, about evolving in what makes the soul grow and rejoice. Are you ready for an exciting new chapter in your life?

Welcome to Date with Destiny! This mentorship contains healing ceremonies, shamanic processes, and initiations to remove blockages, heal at the level of the soul and boost your luminous body (aura) with new life-giving energy.

Here is a short presentation of these 5 sessions that will take you on a sacred journey in finding your soul-purpose and act on your Destiny call.

- 1 Once upon a time.... What story are you living? What needs healing for you to feel free? We work in Shamanic Healing with shifting negative dynamics in the emotional and replenishing the aura with new light that strengthens the immune system and opens the heart. You are offered a shamanic initiation that opens the eyes of the heart and puts it in relationship with your intuition and ability to see the possible.
- 2 This session focuses on soul healing, on developing symbolic gifts within you, on power animals that help to awaken instincts and other medicine gifts for your soul to use in your everyday life. The beauty of this session is that healing takes place in a new sense of wholeness beyond intellect, thought and strategy. We enter the ceremony where the light of the soul shines brightly. You'll also be offered a ceremony where bands of power and protection are woven into your luminous body. A natural filter of life's 5 elements that transform negative energy into light.

- 3 In shamanic traditions Death is a portal to a fresh start. We sit by the river of life and look for what needs to die, to make you feel full of life! Your luminous body will be cleansed from the heavy and filled with a new light vibration of power, energy and medicine that will assist you in stepping forward to the new!
- 4 What are the obstacles in your mind? Do you hear yourself saying Yes, but ... You can have beliefs that goes in the opposite directions and cause conflict with Destiny potential. We look for limiting beliefs in 4 important aspects before it is time for a Destiny energetic download, weaved in with the highest shamanic initiation that makes you glow like the rainbow.
- 5 Follow up session on how to act with what your soul-purpose is in this time. What are the new steps? Ways of seeing and walking in the world now? This session is in your design of what you need support in to continue your Destiny journey.
